PREFACE

TO ALL

Musical and Harmonious Souls.

THat the ſucceeding Age may not too much Reproach us of the preſent with too little Regard of our Fame hereafter, I have in the following Compoſitions preſum'd to ſhew my Endeavours, to juſtify what our Age dares attempt; my great Encouragement for this Boldneſs, is the kind Approbation my Performances have already found, from Perſons of neither mean Fortunes, or Ingenuities; and I flatter my ſelf (from their Favour) that I ſhall not miſcarry in my honeſt Deſigns, which have already had the fortune to Oblige. What I here preſent to the Publick, as it has been perform'd, with the greateſt Diligence, and moſt laborious Care on my part; ſo I hope, it will be entertain'd with a Candour becomming Harmonious Souls on the For others, I have but little to ſay, it being the greateſt ſatisfaction I am Ambitious of, on this ſide Heaven, to promote what Perfect Spirits Glory in there. What may be wanting in this, its Chearful Reception may enflame my future Intentions.
